

Awards and Graduation

Purpose

This policy outlines the rules for students at Australian Institute of Business (AIB) to receive a parchment and official academic transcript for their course and the rules regarding the Graduation ceremony and awards.

Procedure

1. Parchments and official academic transcripts

a) Issue and Eligibility

- i. Students will be eligible to receive a parchment and an official academic transcript for their qualification on completion of the requirements for a course.
- ii. All students must apply to receive their parchment and official academic transcript, using the standard Request for Parchment and/ or Transcript Form. It is not an automatic process.
- iii. The Academic Director will convene a meeting of the Teaching and Learning Committee at regular intervals to approve the results and then forward the minutes to the Academic Board for formal approval of the issuance of qualifications. Each interval has a cut-off date for qualification approvals by which the submission of request forms, and payment where required, must be completed.
- iv. A parchment and official academic transcript will only be issued after the formal approval of the qualification. These will either be mailed out to students (or their Teaching Centre (TC)) or retained to be presented at an AIB Graduation ceremony, at their request. If it is mailed, a postage fee is payable.
- v. Where a student who is continuing with the course requests a parchment and/or transcript for an exit point, fees for the issue of the parchment and transcript are payable. Students must apply to receive their parchment and/or transcript as per clause 1 a) ii above.

b) Recipient's Name on Parchment and Official Academic Transcript

The recipient's name as it appears on the parchment and official academic transcript will be the student's legal name as recorded in the AIB student management system at the time of printing the document.

If the student wishes to change their name from what is recorded in the student management system, they will be required to provide a certified true copy of legal documentation.

c) Replacement Parchments

- i. Replacement parchments are only issued if the original is lost or destroyed or the recipient has legally changed their name since the award was made.
- ii. All replacement parchments are issued on the current official parchment stationery and in the current official format, and will state the parchment is a "replacement copy".
- iii. An original statutory declaration must be provided stating the need for the replacement parchment and, where possible, return the original parchment to be replaced.
- iv. A replacement parchment fee is payable.

2. Graduation Ceremonies

a) Attendance at Graduation

- i. AIB holds one (and may hold a second) Graduation Ceremony in Australia each year.
- ii. Students who have satisfied the requirements of their course and have been awarded a qualification in a particular year may participate in the first available AIB Graduation Ceremony.
- iii. If a student does not participate in the first available AIB Graduation and wishes to participate in a subsequent AIB Graduation, they may do so, provided it is within a reasonable time from the date of issue of the parchment.
- iv. Students are only permitted to participate in one AIB Graduation for each AIB qualification. However, if the student studied at a Teaching Centre then they may participate in the Teaching Centre's Graduation as well as the AIB Graduation (provided it is within a reasonable time from the date of issue of the parchment).
- v. Students must complete the registration process to participate in the AIB Graduation, currently held in Australia. Each Teaching Centre will coordinate the registration for their respective Graduation. A graduation fee is payable by the student in respect of attendance.

- vi. Students may bring guests (i.e. family and friends) to the Graduation. A fee is payable by the student in respect of each guest attending the Graduation. As part of the registration process students must confirm the number of guests they wish to bring to the Graduation and then make the appropriate payment. A limited number of places will be set aside at each Graduation for each student's guests.
- vii. Students who have not yet satisfied the requirements of their course or whose qualification the Academic Board has not yet approved, may not participate in the Graduation.

b) Academic Regalia

- i. Students participating in a Graduation ceremony are required to wear the appropriate AIB academic regalia.
- ii. The specifications for the AIB academic regalia are set out in Appendix 1.
- iii. Academic regalia can be hired on payment of the appropriate academic regalia hire fee.
- iv. The academic regalia which are hired must be returned according to the terms provided at registration. Additional fees will be payable in the event of a late return or if the academic regalia is returned in a damaged condition.
- v. Students who have not yet graduated or have not satisfied the requirements of their course may not hire or purchase academic regalia.

3. Awards

(a) Australian Institute of Business

- i. The Valedictorian Award is presented at each AIB Graduation to the student who has achieved the highest Grade Point Average above 5.5. One award is presented to a student in the Bachelor of Business Administration and one award is presented to a student in the Master of Business Administration. Where more than one student has achieved the highest Grade Point Average above 5.5, then each student is presented with the award.
- ii. A student must have completed at least 50% of the relevant course with AIB to be eligible for any award.
- iii. The award recipients are identified from the graduand list who have completed the relevant course requirements since the cut-off date for the prior AIB Graduation ceremony in Australia.

(b) Teaching Centres

Teaching Centres must contact and obtain approval from AIB if they wish to present a Teaching Centre-specific Valedictorian award. The Teaching Centre-specific Valedictorian award may be presented at a Teaching Centre's annual Graduation ceremony to the student who has achieved the highest Grade Point Average above 5.5. Award recipients are identified from the graduand list since the cut-off date for the Teaching Centre's prior Graduation ceremony. If there is more than one student with the highest Grade Point Average above 5.5, then each student is presented with the award.
