

COPYRIGHT POLICY

Purpose

The Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) and the copyright law of other countries create obligations and restrictions on the copying of material that is created or owned by others.

The purpose of this policy is to promote awareness of and ensure compliance by Australian Institute of Business Pty Ltd ('AIB') and AIB Staff, AIB Representatives and students with the requirements of the Act and copyright law. AIB is both a producer and a consumer of copyright materials. Policy matters regarding the production of copyright material by AIB and its staff are covered in AIB's policies relating to Intellectual Property.

Scope

This policy applies to AIB, AIB Staff, AIB's Representatives and students who are required to comply with and ensure that they do not infringe the copyright of others.

Definitions

Unless otherwise defined in this document, all capitalised terms are defined in the Glossary.

The following definitions apply for the purposes of this Policy and associated procedures.

CAL – means Copyright Agency Limited, the collecting society.

'Act' – means Copyright Act 1968 (Cth)

Copyright material – means literary, dramatic, musical or artistic works or sound recordings, cinematograph films, broadcasts or published editions as defined in the Act.

Copyright Officer – AIB authorised Copyright Officer.

Part IVA Statutory Licence - means the provisions governing the educational use of copyright material outlined in Part IVA Division 4 of the Act.

Use of copyright material- means the exercise of any rights granted to a copyright owner under the Act including the rights of reproduction, publication, performance and communication to the public.

Details

1. Fair dealing for purpose of research or study

- 1.1 Under Section 40 of the Act, students (not the institution) can copy, communicate, adapt etc materials provided it is part of the student's research or study. Appropriate referencing of the origins of any such materials will be required in line with AIB's Academic Integrity Policy.

2. Statutory Licences

- 2.1 The statutory licences provided under the Act give educational institutions certain rights to use copyright material for educational purposes under specific terms without obtaining permission from the copyright owner. The terms of these licences are found in Parts IVA of the Act.
- 2.2 AIB has entered into an agreement with CAL for access to a Part IVA Statutory Licence for a fee.
- 2.3 AIB does not have a Screenrights licence, which would cover copying and communication of broadcasts, e.g. television and radio broadcasts.

3. What can be copied?

- 3.1 Under Part IVA of the Act (which covers print and graphic copying and communication), only a 'reasonable portion' of a copyright work can be copied or communicated (the 'reasonable portion' limits are outlined on CAL's website and this must be for educational purposes.
- 3.2 AIB, AIB Staff and AIB Representatives must comply with the reasonable portion limits set out in Part IVA of the Act and/or on CAL's website.
 - (a) For example, the Part IVA Statutory Licence does not apply to AIB or AIB Representatives' marketing materials, because marketing is not an 'educational purpose'.
 - (b) It also does not cover the copying and distribution of articles, such as in newspapers or other press about AIB.

4. What can be communicated?

- 4.1 Online communication of copyright material is allowed under the Part IVA Statutory Licence, subject to 'reasonable portion' limits on the amounts that may be copied.
- 4.2 AIB Staff or AIB Representatives who wish to make copyright material available via the AIB website must:
 - a) ensure it is for educational purposes; and
 - b) ensure that the amounts of an item of copyright material does not exceed limits on the amounts that may be copied; and
 - c) ensure that a copyright warning notice (see below) appears with the material and that appropriate source information is recorded; or
 - d) obtain the prior written permission from the copyright owner for the proposed use and retain this for the full period the material is available online.

5. Copyright warning notice

- 5.1 A warning notice should be attached to digital copies of any material copied or communicated under the Part IVA Division 4 Statutory Licence.
- 5.2 It is not acceptable to offer the notice as a click through link that gives the viewer the option to bypass it.
- 5.3 The notice should be used only with material copied in reliance of the Part IVA Division 4 Statutory Licence. The notice should not be used with material copied with permission of the copyright owner or under any other blanket licence.

- 5.4 AIB, AIB Staff and AIB Representatives must take all reasonable steps to ensure that each communication can only be received or accessed by people entitled to receive or access it (this would normally mean staff and students of AIB).
- 5.5 Appropriate warning notices should be placed in the following locations or on all items and media files as required under the Act:
- (a) Hard copy warning notices should be displayed beside any machines which are capable of allowing copying or communication of copyright material by students, e.g. photocopiers, computers, video cameras, scanners and other electronic data storage devices.
 - (b) Photocopies made under Part IVA should have a copyright notice attached (see Annexure 1).
 - (c) The required electronic copyright warning notice should appear at the beginning of digital copies of material communicated under Part IVA Division 4 of the Act.

6. Copying of audio-visual material

- 6.1 AIB, AIB Staff and AIB Representatives must not copy and communicate television or radio as AIB does not have a Screenrights statutory licence.
- 6.2 Moving image material available on commercial film or video or the Internet must not be copied without the permission of the copyright owner.
- 6.3 Please note that the Part IVA Division 4 Statutory Licence does not cover the copying of video content (e.g. from YouTube or otherwise). Please refer to the individual licensing conditions with all online material.

7. Hyperlinks

- 7.1 AIB may use hyperlinks in its educational materials (e.g. AIB's Learning Management System) to legitimate external websites without seeking the copyright owner's permission, but if it is required by the terms of the website, please contact the Copyright Officer.
- 7.2 Even so, the following issues need to be considered on a case by case basis for each item of content on external websites:
- (a) prior permission to link to an external website may be required under the terms and conditions for the use of the external website.
 - (b) whether the existence of the item of content on an external website infringes (or is likely to infringe) the owner of the intellectual property rights in that item of content, e.g. if the content was a copy of a 20th Century Fox labelled movie, it is highly likely that it will infringe copyright and trademark laws.
 - (c) where it is unclear and the content is likely to infringe copyright, please review the content and see if the uploader has licensed or has rights to use it in a way that allows commercial or educational use without permission (e.g. a creative commons licensed video, such as those on Creative Commons Search).
 - (d) if no licence or rights have been given, AIB Staff and AIB Representatives should seek to obtain permission to use the content from the copyright owner, who may not be the uploader, or obtain a licence to use the material from a pay for use service.

8. Permission from the Copyright Owner

- 8.1 If permission is obtained from the copyright owner, material can be used in the manner authorised by that permission without any further reference to copyright restrictions. A draft permission letter for staff who wish to approach copyright owners to request permission to use material is at Annexure 2. Please liaise with the Copyright Officer to make these requests.

- 8.2 Permissions Register Any of AIB Staff or AIB Representatives who obtain permission for the use of copyright material must maintain appropriate files recording details of permissions obtained for the full period of the use and notify the Copyright Officer, who will maintain a register of such permissions.
- 8.3 Copyright in computer software Computer software is protected as a literary work under the Act. AIB provides access for AIB Staff and AIB Representatives to computer software through commercial licence agreements. These licences are managed by the relevant Head of Department.
- 8.4 Illegal File Sharing AIB, AIB Staff, AIB Representatives and students will not allow material which infringes the rights of copyright owners to be stored, transmitted or made available on any part of AIB's network. This includes infringing material transferred via peer-to-peer networks and material illegally copied from other media.

9. Moral Rights

Part IX of the Act provides for the moral rights of the creators of literary, dramatic, musical or artistic works and cinematograph films. Moral rights attach to individuals only.

- 9.1 The two moral rights which apply within Australia are the right to be acknowledged as author (attribution), unless it is reasonable not to (or the author has consented to not being attributed) and the right for a work to be treated as a whole (integrity). AIB respects the moral rights of all authors of copyright material as well as those of its staff and students.
- 9.2 AIB, AIB Staff, AIB Representatives and students must avoid making changes or additions to images (and other works) that are unreasonably 'derogatory' (prejudicial to the creator).

10. For Further Information

- 10.1 For any further information regarding compliance with the AIB Copyright Policy or with the Copyright Act, please contact the Copyright Officer at AIBcopyright@aib.edu.au.
