

COVID-19 International Relief Scholarship - Terms and Conditions

Eligibility

The AIB COVID-19 Relief Scholarship is available for new students applying to the following AIB courses:

- Graduate Certificate in Management; or
- Master of Business Administration.

Students must be non-Australian citizens or residents at the time of application and had their livelihood significantly impacted by COVID-19.

To be eligible, you must have met AIB course entry requirements and: (1) Been made redundant, terminated or stood down from your permanent full time, part time or fixed term job; OR (2) Had your average monthly income from a permanent full time, part time or fixed term or casual job reduced by 30%+; OR (3) Had the business you operate as a sole trader, small business owner suffer 30% reduction in average monthly revenue; AND (4) Had those things occur as a result of COVID 19 or mandated social distancing.

Scholarship details

This scholarship will provide you with $1,500 to your upfront costs:

- If you are based in New Zealand, the scholarship will be NZD1,500.
- If you are based in Canada, the scholarship will be CAD1,500.
- If you are based in any other overseas country, the scholarship will be AUD1,500.

COVID-19 International Relief Scholarship is applicable only to eligible prospective students commencing in Terms 5 and 6 of 2020 who will enrol in a minimum of two AIB subjects.

If you are unable to complete your first two subjects, standard withdrawal and refund processes will apply in line with the AIB Withdrawal and Deferral Policy and Procedure and Student Refund Policy and Procedure. Scholarship funds are not refundable and/or transferable to future enrolments commencing from Term 1, 2021.

AIB reserves the right to cap the number of available COVID-19 International Relief Scholarship places in a term due to operational teaching capacity, however this will not reduce the total number of scholarships available or the total value of the scholarship pool.

How to apply?

Applicants must supply evidence of the impact of COVID-19 on their income. Evidence required:

- Employees:
 - letter from employer confirming:
 - stand down; OR
 - reduced hours by at least 30%; OR
 - reduced pay by at least 30%; OR
 - termination of employment; OR
 - payslip showing at least 30% reduction in wages; OR;
- Business Owners and Self Employed:
 - financial statement showing decline in revenue of at least 30% (compared to last year, or the previous 3 months); OR
 - evidence of cancellation of at least 30% of future bookings.