What happens after you receive your final subjects' grade?

Firstly, congratulations on achieving your qualification!

A detailed explanation of what happens next can be found within the Course completion section of the Student Handbook at course completions.

Award approval eligibility information

The award approval cut-off date applies to all completions, exits and requests for nested awards (i.e. completed MBA, GCM, GDM, exits and nested award requests).

Award requests not processed by AIB by close of business on the specified Cut-Off Date will be deferred to the next award approval meeting. Where required, fees must be paid by the cut-off date or that award request will be deferred to the following award approval meeting.

Important information for 2023 Graduation

Graduation represents the pinnacle of a student's postgraduate journey and is an important milestone in the AIB study experience, so we are thrilled to announce the return of our graduation ceremonies! We are hopeful that 2023 will see no more border closures, isolation requirements or event constraints in South Australia and around the country from COVID-19, so that we can proceed as planned. The health and wellbeing of our students and graduates, their families, our staff and the community at large have always been our top priority and will continue to be. That is why we will continue to closely monitor the information and directives provided by the venue, SA Health and the Australian Government to ensure we are able to run a safe graduation for all.

*Availability of certification documentation: It is estimated that the parchments and transcripts will be ready to be posted to students approximately 1 month after each award approval month. Please note that this is an estimate and unanticipated delays may occur. For example, students whose awards are listed for approval in the first session of 2023 can anticipate their documents being posted 1 month after (i.e. by the end of February 2023). Please note that the Coronavirus pandemic has resulted in many postage and courier companies experiencing a high volume of parcels which may result in delivery delays beyond the above estimate.
